Extract of WMRA Constitution

- 6.1 The Members of WMRA are the National Associations of Mountain Running.
- 6.2 There can only be one WMRA Member per country.
- 6.3 These Members will be:
 - a. preferably, the IAAF Member in any country; this body shall take precedence for WMRA Membership in this country; OR
 - b. The National Mountain Running organisation, recognised and authorised by the IAAF Member to be the WMRA Member; OR
 - c. The National Mountain Running organisation of a country in which the recognised IAAF Member is either, not involved, or not interested in the organisation or support of mountain running may be a WMRA Member.
- 7.1 Membership applications should be addressed on a form elaborated by WMRA, either to the WMRA President or the WMRA General Secretary. They must support this Constitution. The Membership is permanent unless there would be a resignation or exclusion.
